VOLUME 7 INDEX

NO. 1, FALL 1996	1–116
NO. 2, WINTER 1996	117–232
NO. 3, SPRING 1997	233–350
NO. 4, SUMMER 1997	351–458

A

Aaron Diamond Foundation, 159
Absenteeism, and flexible work arrangements, 82
Abzug, R., "The Evolution of Trusteeship in the United States: A Roundup of Findings from Six Cities," 101–111
Acceptance attribute, 57
Accountability: ambiguities of defining, 221–222; commentaries on, 113–114, 221–228; conflict-of-interest issues and, 435–438; consequential, 46, 56; and exploitation of the great by the small, 225–226; versus felt responsibility, 224; importance/unimportance of, 223–224; and National Endowment for the Arts decision-making mechanism, 265; and nonprofit diversity, 223, 224; for nonprofit versus other sectors, 222–223; pressures for, 29–30; and private lives of nonprofit executives, in case study, 435–438; and public choice theory, 225, 226–227; and public scandals, 113–114, 308
Achievement-of-intended-results attribute, 57
Adler, F., 410, 411
Administrative competence, 129
Advocacy, 37; and AIDS funding, 156, 161; and nonprofit funding uncertainties, 162
AFL-CIO, 359, 360, 365
AFSCME, 362, 365
"Aggressive" strategic position, 143–145
AIDS funding: and advocacy, 156; historical background on, 158–159; and HIV/AIDS nonprofit organizations, newness of, 163; and HIV/AIDS nonprofit sector in New York City, 156–158; and insecure nonprofit funding mechanisms, 161–163; and legislation, 161–162; and policy complexities, 156, 164–165; and public assistance/entitlements, 160; and rhetoric of scarcity, 155–165; uncertainty about services needed and, 159–161, 164; uncertainty about service population size and, 159–161, 164; unresponsiveness and, 158–159, 164. See also Rhetoric of scarcity
"AIDS Funding and the Rhetoric of Scarcity," 155–167
Alleviation, as gift predictor, 4, 10
Altman, S. M., "Southville Jewish Community Center, Inc.: A Case Study," 193–196
Altruism, 6
Alumni campaigns: donor behavior and, 5–12; recommendations for, 11–12; task versus people orientation and, 6–7, 10
American Foundation for AIDS Research, 157, 159
American Hospital Association, 449
American Joint Distribution Committee (AJDC), 15–16
American Nurses Association, 360
American Originals Program, 260–261
Americans and the Arts (Louis Harris), 263
Anarchy, 328, 329
Annual giving, versus major gifts, 338–339
"Anticipated Growth of Nonprofit Unionism, The," 355–371
Appropriateness attribute, 57, 58
Arenas, 31–32, 37–38
Arndt, M., "Corporate Political Strategy: A Framework for Understanding Nonprofit Strategy," 29–43
Arrow impossibility theorem, 226–227
Articles: "AIDS Funding and the Rhetoric of Scarcity," 155–167; "The Anticipated Growth of Nonprofit Unionism," 355–371; "Arts Management Cutback Strategies: A Cross-Sector Analysis," 271–290; "Board Practices and Board Effectiveness in Local

 © Jossey-Bass Publishers

Articles (continued)
Nonprofit Organizations," 373–385; "Competing Nonprofit Organizations Also Collaborate," 15–27; "Corporate Political Strategy: A Framework for Understanding Nonprofit Strategy," 29–43; "Exploring Structure-Effectiveness Relationships in Nonprofit Arts Organizations," 119–136; "Fairness and Reputation Effects in a Provision Point Contributions Process," 235–251; "Intermediary Bodies in the 1990s: New Settings, Old Problems?" 169–180; "Is There an Afterlife? How Nonprofits Move Toward Self-Sufficiency as Foundation Dollars End," 291–304; "Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67; "The Performance of Performance Indicators in the Arts," 253–269; "Public Funding and Institutional Reorganization: Evidence from the Early Kindergarten Movement," 405–420; "The Relationship Between Formal Planning and Performance in Nonprofit Organizations," 387–403; "Strategy Formulation in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations: A Proposed Framework," 137–153; "Why Donors Give," 3–14
Arts Council of Great Britain, Incentive Funding Scheme, 257
"Arts Management Cutback Strategies: A Cross-Sector Analysis," 271–290
Arts organizations: Australian, 273–286; decline in, and funding cutbacks, 271–273; and donors, 259; matching grants programs and, 256–259; organizational strategies of, 272; participation studies and, 262–264; performance indicators in, 253–267; revenue sources of, 258–259, 278; strategic responses to cutbacks in, 271–286; structure-effectiveness relationships in, 119–133. See also Organizational structure; Performance indicators
"Ask" factor, 6, 12
Aswalos House Program, 149
Atlanta, boards of trustees in, 103
Audience surveys, 262–264
Australia, arts management cutback strategies study in, 271–286
Authority: corporate model of, 328, 329, 331; and nonprofit governance, 327–332; Weber's typology of, 327–328, 329

B

Bailey and Grochau model, 139, 140
Bailey House, 157
Balfour, K., "Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67
Basic Principles of Policy Governance (Carver and Carver), reviewed, 439–440
BCG matrix, 139–140
Beaudet, P., "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348
Big Brothers/Big Sisters, 121
Bigelow, B., "Corporate Political Strategy: A Framework for Understanding Nonprofit Strategy," 29–43
Billis, D., "Editor's Notes," 1–2, 117–118, 233–234
Black philanthropy, 98–99
Blow, S., 410, 411, 413
Board effectiveness: assessment methods of, 377–378; board members' perspectives on, 383; board practices and, 373–383; CEO perspectives on, 381–382; funders' perspectives on, 382–383; and organizational effectiveness, 374–375; social constructionist perspective on, 375, 381; study of, 376–383
Board Overboard: Laughs and Lessons for All but the Perfect Nonprofit (O'Connell), reviewed, 439–440, 442
Board practices: effects of, on stakeholders' judgments of effectiveness, 381–383; prescriptive, 374, 379; prescriptive, and board effectiveness, 381–383; prescriptive, extent of use of, 378–380; prescriptive, and funding environment, 380–381
"Board Practices and Board Effectiveness in Local Nonprofit Organizations," 373–385
Boards: books about, 439–444; community elites in, 102, 105–106, 107; conflict-of-interest issues in, case study, 435–438; demographic diversity of, 102, 104–105, 106, 109; and evolution of trusteeship, 101–110; and executive director relations, 193–196, 328, 330–332, 443–444; fiduciary responsibilities of, 441, 442; of Israeli social change organizations, 91–92; literature about, categories of, 439–440; and organizational effectiveness, 374–375; organizational mission and, 102–103, 108, 109–110; and performance reporting, 52, 53, 54–56; policy governance model of, 440–442; practices of, effectiveness of, 373–383; prescriptive practices for, 374, 379; prescriptive practices for, and board effectiveness, 381; prescriptive practices for, extent of use of, 378–380; prescriptive practices for, and funding environment, 380–381; regional differences and, 102, 108, 109–110; responsibilities of, 373–374, 440–441, 442–443; standards for, 373–374; and strategic planning, 387, 389, 394–399; variability of, 110–111. See also Executive Committee; Strategic planning committee; Trusteeship

Boards That Make a Difference: A New Design for Leadership in Nonprofit and Public Organizations (Carver), 440, 441, 445

Body Positive, 157

Boelte, M., 409, 410

Bolshaya Semya group, 427

Book Reviews: "The Dilemmas of Authority in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations," 327–332; "Economics for Nonprofit Management and the Charitable Tax Exemption," 197–201; "Foundations and Philanthropy: More Probings of Different Parts of the Elephant?" 95–99; "Three Booklets and Three Books on Nonprofit Boards and Governance," 439–445

Boston, boards of trustees in, 103

Boston YWCA, 149–150

Bradshaw, P., "The Dilemmas of Authority in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations," 327–332

Bragg, D., "Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67

British Columbia, human services organizations in, 45–66

Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS, 157, 159

Bronx AIDS Services, 157

Brotherton, M., "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348

Brown, V., Policy versus Paper Clips: Selling the Corporate Model to Your Nonprofit Board, reviewed, 327–332

Bulletin Board, 115–116, 229–231, 349–350, 455–457

Bureaucracy, 407–408, 417

C

California, AIDS funding in, 159

California Franchise Tax Board, 451

California Nonprofit Database (CND) Project, 447–453; access to, 452–453; costs of, 453; data included in, 449–450; data quality assurance for, 451–452; data sources for, 450–451; funding of, 453; hardware/software for, 453; organization categorization in, 448–449; organizations included in, 448; purpose of, 447; report of, 447; structure of, 452; use of, 452–453

California Registry of Charitable Trusts (RCT) codes/data, 448, 449, 450, 453

California Secretary of State (SoS) codes/data, 448, 450, 453

Canadian Comprehensive Auditing Foundation (CCAF), 46, 52, 54, 57

Capacity Building Center for Social Change Organizations (SHATIL), 87–93

Capital Mental Health Association, 48–49

Caring for People: Community Care in the Next Decade and Beyond (Department of Health, Britain), 170

Carson, E. D., A Hand Up: Black Philanthropy and Self-Help in America, 95–99

Carver, J., Basic Principles of Policy Governance, 439–440; Three Steps to Fiduciary Responsibility, 439–440, 441; Your Roles and Responsibilities as a Board Member, 439–441

Carver, M. M., Basic Principles of Policy Governance, 439–440; Your Roles and Responsibilities as a Board Member, 439–441

CarverGuide Series on Effective Board Governance, reviewed, 439–442
Cause: belief in, as donor motive, 4, 6, 340–340; and donor behavior, 4–5, 9–10
Census of Services Industries (CSI), 449
Centralization, 121
Chambré, S. M., "AIDS Funding and the Rhetoric of Scarcity," 155–167
Charismatic authority, 328, 329
Charitable Tax Exemption, The (Colombo and Hall), reviewed, 197–201
Charitable trusts, 227
Chief executive officers (CEOs): and authority, 328–329; perspectives of, on board practices and effectiveness, 381–382. See also Executive directors
Child care, and flexible work arrangements, 71, 80–81
Child Care Program (Boston YWCA), 149
Children's Fund, 426, 427
Choruses, 125. See also Performing arts organizations
CIVICUS, 317–326; board of, 319–320, 322; and civil society, 317–318, 324–326; cultural diversity and, 322–323; future of, 324; global challenges of, 319–320, 322–324; leadership of, 322; members of, 319; members of, benefits to, 321–322; as a membership organization, 318–319; mission of, 317; and parochialism, 324; projects of, 322; regional conveners of, 320; regional versus global orientation of, 323–324; revenue sources of, 320–321; secretariat of, 323–324
Civil service systems, 360–361
Civil society: defined, 317–318; global association for, 317–326; global vision for, 324–326. See also CIVICUS; Nonprofit sector
Classification systems: and defining the public sector, 203–215; in state nonprofit data bases, 448–449
Cleveland, boards of trustees in, 103
Clients, and performance reporting, 54, 55
Cnaan, R. A., 221–225
Coalitions, 31, 36. See also Cooperation; Corporate political strategy
Collaboration: as continuation strategy, 298–299; and intermediary bodies, 169–178; among nonprofit organizations, 15–25, 34. See also Cooperation; Intermediary bodies
Colombo, J. D., Charitable Tax Exemption, The, reviewed, 197–201
Colwell, M. A., Private Foundations and Public Policy: The Political Role of Philanthropy, 95–99
"Combine" strategic position, 146
Commemoration, as donor motive, 4, 6, 7–8
Commentary, 113–114, 221–228
Commercialization cutback strategies, among arts organizations, 278, 284
Commitment: to decision-making structure, and performance, 131, 132–133; employee, in nonprofit versus other sectors, 70–71
Committees, influence of, in performing arts organizations, 124–125
Community-based organizational change, 298
Community benefit theory of nonprofit tax exemption, 200–201
Community elites, in boards of trustees, 102, 105–106, 107
Community health center, 38
"Competing Nonprofit Organizations Also Collaborate," 15–27
Competition: as donor motive, 4, 6; in nonprofit environment, 29–30; among organizations, and cooperation, 17–18, 23–24; tactics of, 31, 32. See also Cooperation
Competitive position: assessment form for, 148; in nonprofit strategy selection matrix, 141–151
Competitive strategy, 30; versus corporate political strategy, 32, 39
Comprehensive AIDS Resources Emergency Act, 162
Compressed work week, 69; defined, 70; extent of, 74, 76, 77; weekend, 73, 83. See also Flexible work arrangements
Computer-based information systems, 48. See also Management information systems
Concert organizations, 125, 127, 130–131. See also Arts organizations; Performing arts organizations
Conflict-of-interest issues, in case study, 435–438

"Consequence" news value, 184, 185
Consequential accountability, 46, 56
Constituency building, 31. See also Corporate political strategy
Constituent/colleague contact, 35
Constituent satisfaction, 122, 128, 129
Consultants, for strategic planning, 389–390, 396, 397, 399
Contingent workers, unionization of, 362–363, 366–367
Continuation strategies: cultural differences and, 302; for demonstration health care projects, 291–303; factors in successful, 299–303; project dissemination/support and, 302; project management/integration and, 301–302; project organization/design and, 301; project selection and, 300; transition planning/reporting and, 300–301; types of, 297–299
Continuum of major gifts, 335–336
Conveners, and organizational cooperation, 19, 21, 22–23, 24–25
Cook, W. B., "Surveying the Major Gifts Literature: Observations and Reflections," 333–347
Cooper, S., 410
Cooperation: and competition, 17–18, 23–24; convener involvement in, 19, 21, 22–23, 24–25; as cutback management strategy, 282–283; defined, 16; and independence, 17, 18, 20, 21, 23; and mistrust, 24; among nonprofit organizations, 15–25; organizational characteristics affecting, 17; and organizational domain, 19, 20–22; and partner effectiveness, 19, 21, 22, 24; price of, 16–17; research study on, 19–23; among United Way membership associations, 308. See also Corporate political strategy; Intermediary bodies
Cooperative cutback strategies, among arts organizations, 278, 282–283
Co-optation, 31, 34, 36. See also Corporate political strategy
Coordinating bodies. See Intermediary bodies
"Coordinating" organizational type, effectiveness of, 127, 130
Coordination, 171–172
Corcoran Gallery, 443
Corporate management model, 328, 329, 331
Corporate philanthropy: and cultural indicators, 264; versus individual giving, 3
Corporate political strategy, 29–39; characteristics of, 30–32; and environment, 29–30, 32–33, 38–39; funders and, 33, 34–36; interorganizational networks and, 34, 36; literature review and, 33–36; and nonprofit environment, 29–30, 32–33. See also Cooperation
"Corporate Political Strategy: A Framework for Understanding Nonprofit Strategy," 29–43
Cost-benefit analysis, 198
Cost reduction strategies, among arts organizations, 278, 280–281
Costs-and-productivity attribute, 57
Council on Foundations, 317; Evaluation for Foundations: Concepts, Cases, Guidelines, and Resources (reviewed), 95–99
Councils for Voluntary Service (CVSs), 170–178; Wirral Council example of, 173–176. See also Intermediary bodies
Crisis, and formal strategic planning, 390, 393, 394, 396–398
Cross-fertilizing projects, 299
Cultivation cycle, 335–336
Cultural indicators, 255–259, 262–264
Cultural organizations. See Arts organizations
Cultures of trusteeship, 102–103, 107–109
Cutback management strategies: and arts organization financial decline, 271–273; commercialization, 278, 284; cooperative, 278, 282–283; cost reduction, 278, 280–281; political, 278, 281–282; refinancing, 278, 283–284; relocation, 278, 284–285; and strategic choice, 286; study of, among Australian arts organizations, 273–286; types of, 278, 279, 280
Cutbacks: and British voluntary sector, 169; continuation strategies and, 291–292; and rise of voluntary contribution mechanisms, 235–236; strategic responses to, in arts organizations, 271–286
Cutt, J., "Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67

D

Daniels, S., "Foundations and Philanthropy: More
Probings of Different Parts of the Elephant?" 95–99
Data bases. See State nonprofit data bases
Decentralization, 121
Decision-making structures, in performing arts organizations, 124–128. See also Organizational structure
Deliberate harvest, 146
Democracy, and global civil society, 325–326
Demonstration health care projects, 291–292; continuation strategies for, 297–303; end of, clinicians' perspectives on, 295–296; end of, managers' perspectives on, 297–299; of John A. Hartford Foundation's Generalist Physician Initiative, 292–299. See also Continuation strategies
DePaul Health Center, unionization at, 358
Des Moines Register, 183
Design Industry Foundation for AIDS (DIFFA), 157, 159
Developmental disabilities (DD) organizations, 376–377, 380–381. See also Social services organizations
Dictatorship, 227
Diffusion, 121, 125, 126–127
"Dilemmas of Authority in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations, The," 327–332
Directorial organizations, 127, 130
Disabilities services, Russian, 426–427. See also Developmental disabilities (DD) organizations
Dispersion, measures of, 261
Diversity: in boards of trustees, 102, 104–106, 109; and global civil society organization, 322–323; of nonprofit organizations, 223, 224
Donations: and donative theory of nonprofit tax exemption, 199–201; price elasticity of, 200; size of, predictors of, 8–11. See also Major gifts
Donative theory of nonprofit tax exemption, 199–201
Donors: and fundraising leadership, 343–344; major gift, focusing on, 337–339; means of, 11; versus members, 307; motives of, 3–14, 339–342; versus nondonors, 8; past behavior of, 11, 12; and performance indicators, 259; and prestige of institution, 339–340, 341; relations with, 336, 344; task versus people orientation of, 6–7, 10; sociodemographics of, 8–9. See also Giving, individual
Downsizing: as cutback management strategy, 279, 283; and turnaround strategic position, 144

E

Eastern/central Europe, and global civil society, 324–325
Ecological Initiative, Voronezh, 428
Economic analysis: of charitable tax exemption, 198–199; for nonprofit management, 197–198
"Economics for Nonprofit Management and the Charitable Tax Exemption," 197–201
Economics for Nonprofit Managers (Young and Steinberg), reviewed, 197–201
Editor's Notes, 1–2, 117–118, 233–234, 351–353
Educational institutions: assimilation of nonprofit into public, 405–418; donor behavior and, 5–12. See also Higher educational institutions; Kindergarten movement; Preschool education
Effectiveness. See Board effectiveness; Organizational effectiveness
"Effects of Flexible Work Arrangements, The," 69–86
Efficiency, 32, 39
Elderly, primary care of, 292–299
Elites: as major donors, 341; as trustees, 102, 105–106, 107
Emergent harvest, 146
Employees, nonprofit, characteristics of, 70–71, 363. See also Flexible work arrangements; Unionism
England, intermediary bodies in, 169–178. See also Intermediary bodies
Entrepreneurial-commercial organizations, 391
Entrusted: The Moral Responsibilities of Trusteeship (Smith), reviewed, 439–440, 442–443

Equity, and provision point mechanisms, 238–239, 246–250
Esquimalt Neighbourhood House, 49
Evaluation: for foundations, 96–97; organizational effectiveness, 121–122, 128–131; statistical indicators for, in arts/cultural organizations, 259–261
Evaluation for Foundations: Concepts, Cases, Guidelines, and Resources (Council on Foundations), reviewed, 95–99
"Evolution of Trusteeship in the United States, The: A Roundup of Findings from Six Cities," 101–111
Executive committee: in case study, 194–195; for strategic planning, 389, 396, 397, 399
Executive directors (EDs): and authority, 328–329; and board relations, 193–196, 328, 330–332, 443–444; forced retirement of, in case study, 193–196; leadership of, 330–332; and performance reporting, 47, 52, 53, 54–56, 59. See also Chief executive officers
Executive Order 10988, 361
"Expansion" strategic position, 144, 145
Exploitation, and nonprofit accountability, 225–226
"Exploring Structure-Effectiveness Relationships in Nonprofit Arts Organizations," 119–136
External change agents. See Conveners
External environment assessment, in nonprofit strategy selection matrix, 141–151

F

"Fairness and Reputation Effects in a Provision Point
Contributions Process," 235–251
Features: "An Interview with Miklós Marschall," 317–326; "An Interview with Sari Revkin," 87–93; "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348; "Southville Jewish Community Center, Inc.: A Case Study," 193–196
Felt responsibility, 224
Festival organizations, 125–126, 130–131. See also Arts organizations; Performing arts organizations
Financial accounting, 46
Financial history, and formal strategic planning, 390, 393, 394, 396–398
Financial performance measures, 393–394
Financial ratio analysis, 46
Financial results, 57
Financial statement, 46
Financial strength measures, 128–130
Flexible work arrangements, 69–85; costs of, 83; defined, 69; effective, factors of, 83–84; effectiveness of, 82–83; and employee needs, 72, 73, 78, 80; extent of, 71–72, 74–78; fairness in, 81, 83–84; future of, 84–85; management approaches to, 81–82; management support for, 81–82, 83–84; and nature of nonprofit employees, 70–71; and nature of nonprofit organizations, 70; reasons for, 78, 80; study of, among Illinois nonprofits, 72–84; types of, defined, 70, 73; users of, 80–82; written policies for, extent of, 78, 79, 80
Flextime, 69; defined, 70; extent of, 72, 74, 76, 77–78. See also Flexible work arrangements
Flexyear arrangements, 73, 82–83. See also Flexible work arrangements
Florida, AIDS funding in, 159
Foreground and background activities, 335–336
Formal planning. See Strategic planning
Foundations: and AIDS funding, 158, 159; demonstration projects of, continuation strategies for, 291–303; evaluation for, 95–96; and public policy, 97–98
Fram, E., High-Performance Nonprofit, The: A Management Guide for Boards and Executives, reviewed, 327–332; Policy versus Paper Clips: Selling the Corporate Model to Your Nonprofit Board, reviewed, 327–332
Free-riding, 225, 236; effects of provision point mechanism on, 237, 238, 240, 246, 248–249, 250
Freedom-of-information legislation, Israeli, 87–88
Froebel, F., 409, 410, 413, 416
From the Field: "The Effects of Flexible Work Arrangements," 69–86; "The News Value of Nonprofit Organizations and Issues,"

From the Field (continued)
181–192; "Remissioning Nonprofits: Two Case Studies of Membership Associations," 305–316; "Society in Motion: Russia's Emerging Voluntary Sector," 421–432
Fund for Mercy and Health, 426, 427, 428
Funders: demands of, and corporate political strategy, 33, 34–37; demands of, and performance reporting, 45–46, 53, 54–56; of HIV/AIDS services, 156–157, 158–159; perspectives of, on board practices/effectiveness, 382–383. See also AIDS funding; Donors; Foundations; Government funding
Funding: arts, turbulence in, 271–272; methods of, and insecurity, 161–163; short-term, and gaining self-sufficiency, 291–303; types of, and board practices, 380–381. See also AIDS funding
Fundraising: continuum ("Five I's") model of, 335–336; costs of, and tax exemptions, 199; as donor relations, 336; leadership and, 343–344; major gift, literature survey of, 333–344; major gift focus in, 337–339; models of, 333–336; organizational prerequisites for, 342–343; ROPES typology of, 336; social exchange models of, 343–344; two-way symmetrical model of, 334

G

Gay Men's Health Crisis (GMHC), 157, 163
GE/McKinsey planning grid, 139, 141
Gender: and flexible work arrangements, 80–81; and nonprofit employees, 70, 71, 363; and nonprofit power structure, 363; and trusteeship, 104, 105, 108–109
Generalist Physician Initiative, 292–299
Gift size, predictors of, 8–11
Ginter, Duncan, Capper, and Rowe model, 139, 140
Giving, individual: versus corporate, 3; models of, 4–12; as percentage of personal spending, 3; predictors of, 4–12. See also Donors
Global civil society organization. See CIVICUS
Goal attainment effectiveness, 122, 128, 129
God's Love We Deliver, 157
Gorbachev, M., 423, 424
Government contracting: and corporate political strategy, 35–36; for health care services, 358–360. See also Public sector
Government funding: and corporate political strategy, 35–56, 37; and cultural indicators, 262–263; and HIV/AIDS epidemic, 158–159, 161–163; and institutional reorganization, 405–418; matching grants programs of, 256–259; and performance indicators in arts/cultural organizations, 254–255, 256–258, 262–263, 266–267; for preschools, 406, 418; program-oriented approach to, 162–163; and United Way membership associations, 308–309. See also Cutbacks; Public sector
Governmental voting rule, 226–227
Grass-roots organizations: effectiveness of, 130; influence configuration in, 127; Israeli, 89–93; Russian, after Glasnost, 423–425, 426, 429; Russian, before Glasnost, 422–423
Green Choice Program, 237
Grief process, at end of demonstration project grant, 296–297
Grounded theory research, 123
Grubber and Mohr model, 140

H

Hall, M. A., Charitable Tax Exemption, The, reviewed, 197–201
Hand Up, A: Black Philanthropy and Self-Help in America (Carson), reviewed, 95–99
Harris, M., "Editor's Notes," 351–353
Harris, W. T., 414
"Harvest" strategic position, 146
Hatten and Hatten model, 139–140
Health and welfare (H&W) organizations, 376–377, 380–381. See also Health care organizations; Social service organizations
Health belief model, 4–5; versus empirically based model of personal donorship, 9–11
Health care organizations: demonstration, continuation strategies of, 297–303; managed care, and unionism, 358–360
Health care workers, and unionism, 358–360, 363–364

Health fitness facility, 150
Heimovics, R. D., "Board Practices and Board Effectiveness in Local Nonprofit Organizations," 373–385
Herman, R. D., "Board Practices and Board Effectiveness in Local Nonprofit Organizations," 373–385
High-Performance Nonprofit, The: A Management Guide for Boards and Executives (Fram and Pearce), reviewed, 327–332
Higher education institutions: flexible work arrangements in, 71–72, 73, 75; and major gifts, 336–337, 339
Hohl, K. L., "The Effects of Flexible Work Arrangements," 69–86
Hospitals: flexible work arrangements in, 72, 73, 75, 77; unionism and, 364
Housing Works, 157
"Human interest" news value, 184, 186
Human resources management policies, 368

I

Illinois nonprofits, flexible work arrangements among, 72–84
Indecisive organizational type, 128, 130, 132
Independence, and cooperation, 17, 18, 20, 21, 23. See also Cooperation
Independent contractors, and unionization, 367
INDEPENDENT SECTOR, 317
Individual philanthropy, 3–14. See also Donors; Giving, individual
Induced valuation, 240
Influence within organizations: configurations of, 120–121, 126–128; configurations of, effectiveness of, 128–133; diffusion of, 126–127; dimensions of, 120–121, 126–128; distribution of, 121, 124–126
Information and referral services human services organization codes, 448
Information reporting. See Performance reporting
Information sharing, modes of, in provision point mechanisms, 243–250
Institute for Nonprofit Organization Management, University of San Francisco, 447, 452
Institutional organizations, 127, 130
Institutional reorganization, public funding and, 405–418
Interest-based communities, 226
Intermediary bodies (IBs), 169–178; development work of, 174, 177–178; historical background on, 170–171; intermediary work of, 174–175, 177–178; management styles of, 172–173; organizational issues for, 171–173, 176–178; and pluralism, 171–172, 178; satisfaction with, 175–176, 177; Wirral Council example of, 173–176
"Intermediary Bodies in the 1990s: New Settings, Old Problems?" 169–180
Internal process effectiveness, 122, 128, 129
Internal Revenue Code (IRC), Section 501(c), 448
Internal Revenue Service activity codes, 448, 449
Internal Revenue Service Form 990 data, 449, 450, 451
International Brotherhood of the Teamsters, 364–365, 366
"Interview with Miklós Marschall, An," 317–326
"Interview with Sari Revkin, An," 87–93
Intrusiveness, funder, 33, 34–37
Involvement, as gift predictor, 4, 9–11
Iowa City Press Citizen, 183
"Is There an Afterlife? How Nonprofits Move Toward Self-Sufficiency as Foundation Dollars End," 291–304
Israel: nonprofit collaboration in, 15–25; nonprofit training/consulting organization (SHATIL) in, 87–93
Israeli Voluntary Center (IVC), 15–16
Issues: and corporate political strategy, 37; life cycle of, 31, 32

J

Jeavons's framework, 406–408, 415–418
Jerry Lewis Telethon, 236, 237
Jewish Community Center (JCC), Southville, Georgia, 193–196
Job sharing: costs of, 83; defined, 70; extent of, 74, 76, 77. See also Flexible work arrangements

John A. Hartford Foundation, Generalist Physician Initiation, 292–299
Joint appointments: defined, 70; effectiveness of, 82–83; extent of, 76, 77. See also Flexible work arrangements
Joy of giving, 6, 7, 8, 10, 12

K

Kansas City-area local nonprofit organizations, in board effectiveness study, 376–383
Kindergarten movement, 405–406; comprehensive services of, 411–412; growth of, 407; history of, 409–414; and nonprofit versus public kindergartens compared, 415; public funding of, 412–414; transformation of, under public school system, 414–417
Kingma, B. R., "Economics for Nonprofit Management and the Charitable Tax Exemption," 197–201
Kuechle, J., "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348
Kushner, R. J., "Exploring Structure-Effectiveness Relationships in Nonprofit Arts Organizations," 119–136

L

Laboratory experimentation, 239–240; in provision point mechanism study, 240–243
Lansley, J., "Intermediary Bodies in the 1990s: New Settings, Old Problems?" 169–180
Largesse, predictors of, 8–11
Latin America, and global civil society, 325
Leadership: of executive directors, 330–332; for major gift fundraising, 343–344
Leat, D., 113–114
Legitimacy, and corporate political strategy, 32–33, 34, 35
Leitch, D., "Society in Motion: Russia's Emerging Voluntary Sector," 421–432
"Lend a Hand Children's Services" case study, 435–438
Leveraging strategy, 297
Library science employees, unionization of, 361–362
Life cycle, organizational, in social services organizations, 138, 139
Life-stages, human: and flexible work arrangements, 80–81; and nonprofit employees, 71
Longwood College, 240–243
Los Angeles, boards of trustees in, 103
Louis Harris participation surveys, 263

M

Major gifts: versus annual giving, 338–339; focus on, 337–338; fundraising models for, 333–336; and institutional quality, 339–340; literature survey of, 333–344; motives for giving, 339–342; organizational prerequisites for, 342–343; significance of, 336–338; typical recipients of, 339. See also Donations
Managed care, and unionism, 358–360
Management: economic analysis for, 197–198; leadership guides for, 330–332
Management control model, and performance reporting, 46–47, 49, 52–59
Management-direction attribute, 57, 58
Management information systems, 47–48
Mann, H., 411
Marenholtz-Bulow, Baroness, 409, 410
Marginal analysis, 198
Market pluralism, 170
Market sector, defining of, and other sectors, 210–214. See also Private sector
Marketing model, 49
Marks, M. B., "Fairness and Reputation Effects in a Provision Point Contributions Process," 235–251
Marschall, M., interviewed, 317–326
Martens, T. A., "The News Value of Nonprofit Organizations and Issues," 181–192
Marwedel, E., 409, 410, 411
Matching grants programs, for arts/cultural organizations, 256–259
Meals on Wheels, 49, 121
Media: and HIV/AIDS epidemic, 158; newspaper versus other, 190; and nonprofit

newsworthiness, 181–190; research needed on, 190. See also Newsworthiness
Membership associations: missions of, 307–308; nature of, 306–307; remissioning of, 308–311; scope of, 306; service versus representation orientations of, 307–308; United Ways', 308–311. See also CIVICUS; Provision point mechanism; Subscription mechanisms
Memorial, 428
Merger, 146
Meyer, S., 193–196
Mid-America Arts Alliance, 260–261
Middle class, 337–338, 365
Miloserdie (Mercy) Society, 427–428
Minneapolis/Saint Paul, boards of trustees in, 103
Mission: belief in, as donor motive, 340–341; of membership associations, 307–308; of membership associations, modification of, 308–315. See also Remissioning
"Mission modification" strategic position, 146. See also Remissioning
Missouri Arts Council, 266
Mitchell, C. S., "State Nonprofit Data Bases: Lessons from the California Experience," 447–454
Model Nonprofit Corporation Act, 307
Momentum, 157
Monitoring, use of performance indicators for, 261–264
Monitoring-and-reporting attribute, 57, 58
Montes, G., "Public Funding and Institutional Reorganization: Evidence from the Early Kindergarten Movement," 405–420
Motives, donor: major gift, 339–342; models of, 3–14
Mount, J., "Why Donors Give," 3–14
Multiple-constituency approach to effectiveness, 375
Murray, V., "Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67; "Three Booklets and Three Books on Nonprofit Boards and Governance," 439–445
Museums: in Australian cutback management strategies study, 274, 277; and use of performance indicators, 254. See also Arts organizations
Mutual benefit associations. See Membership associations; Provision point mechanism; Subscription mechanisms
Mutual dependence, and cooperation, 17, 18, 20, 21, 23. See also Cooperation

N

Nadezhda, 426–427
Najam, A., "Understanding the Third Sector: Revisiting the Prince, the Merchant, and the Citizen," 203–215
National Catholic Educational Association, 449
National Center for Charitable Statistics, 448, 450
National Charities Information Bureau (NCIB) standards, 128, 129
National Endowment for the Arts (NEA): Challenge Grant Program, 257–258; and evaluations, 260; and participation studies, 263; peer panel review process of, 265; Research Division, 267
National Labor Relations Board (NLRB): and independent contractors, 367; jurisdictional standards, 356, 357
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 448
Netting, F. E., "Is There an Afterlife? How Nonprofits Move Toward Self-Sufficiency as Foundation Dollars End," 291–304
Networks, interorganizational, 34, 36. See also Cooperation
New Israel Fund (NIF), 87–93
New York AIDS Coalition, 161
New York City: HIV/AIDS funding in, 159; HIV/AIDS nonprofit sector in, 156–158, 163; HIV/AIDS service population in, 159–160. See also AIDS funding; Rhetoric of scarcity
New York State, AIDS funding in, 158–159
New York State Council on the Arts, 260
New York Times, 183
"News Value of Nonprofit Organizations and Issues, The," 181–192

Newsworthiness: and advice for getting coverage, 189; coding of, 184; of nonprofit information, 181–189; of nonprofit information, in San Francisco Chronicle content analysis study, 183–187; of nonprofit information, in media interview study, 187–189; research needs and, 190
Newton, H., 410, 414
Niagara Mohawk, 237
Nongovernment organizations (NGOs): versus "civil society" organizations, 318; versus "nonprofit" organizations, 207–208. See also Nonprofit organizations
Nonprofit Boards and Leadership: Cases on Governance, Change and Board-Staff Dynamics (Wood), reviewed, 439–440, 443–444
Nonprofit environment: and corporate political strategy, 29–30, 32–33, 38–39; features of, 32–33
Nonprofit organizations: acronyms used to describe, 205, 206; advocacy role of, 37; assimilation of, into public sector, 405–418; classification of, 203–215, 448–450; cooperation among, 15–25; flexible work arrangements in, 69–85; and major gifts, 339–340; newsworthiness of, 181–190; state data bases of, 447–453; strategy formulation in, 137–115; structure-effectiveness relationships in, 119–133; values-expressive nature of, 70, 406–408, 415–416. See also Arts organizations; Grassroots organizations; Health care organizations; Membership associations; Social services organizations
Nonprofit sector: accountability for, versus other sectors, 222–223, 226–227; in Britain, 169–178; defining of, 203–215; defining of, methodologies of, 214–215; in developing versus industrialized countries, 210–211; external boundaries of, mapping of, 210–215; external boundaries versus internal contours of, 205, 210–211; government as source of revenue for, 355; labels for, 204, 205, 206, 207; labels for, and civil society, 318; legitimization of, 204; "nonprofit" and "nongovernment" descriptors of, 207–208; "The Prince, the Merchant, and the Citizen" framework of, 209–214; public sector partnerships with, 355, 358–360; public sector similarities with, 362–366; in Russia, 421–432; structural/operational definition of, 214; unionism in, 355–368
Nonprofit strategy selection matrix: cells in, described, 143–146; overview of, 141–143; use of, in case example, 146–150; use and limitations of, 150–151
"Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67
North American Industrial Classification System, 448
Nostalgia, as donor motive, 8
Not-for-Profit CEO: A Survivor's Manual (Wright), reviewed, 327–332
NPSOs. See Social services organizations
Nurses, unionism and, 364

O

O'Connell, B., Board Overboard: Laughs and Lessons for All but the Perfect Nonprofit, reviewed, 439–440, 442
O'Neill, M., "State Nonprofit Data Bases: Lessons from the California Experience," 447–454
Orchestras, 125, 126, 130; Wolf Organization study of, 261, 265. See also Performing arts organizations
Orend, R. J., "State Nonprofit Data Bases: Lessons from the California Experience," 447–454
Organizational domain, and cooperation, 17, 19, 20–22. See also Cooperation
Organizational effectiveness: board effectiveness and, 374–375; components of, 122–123; evaluation of, 121–122, 128–131; measures of, 128–129; model of, 122–123; multiple-constituency approach to, 375; nonprofit, theoretical issues in, 121–123; relationship of structure to, 119–123, 128–133; social constructionist perspective on, 375. See also Performance headings
Organizational size, and planning-performance relationship, 394–395
Organizational structure: defined, 120; influence configurations and, 120–121, 126–133; influence distribution and, 121, 124–

126; nonprofit, theoretical issues of, 120–121; in performing arts organization field study, 123–133; in performing arts organizations, 123–126; relationship of, to organizational effectiveness, 119–123, 128–133; and volunteer/staff influence, 121, 124–128

P

Padanyi, P. S., "The Dilemmas of Authority in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations," 327–332
Palmer, I., "Arts Management Cutback Strategies: A Cross-Sector Analysis," 271–290
Participation studies, 262–264
Particularism, 226–227
Part-time work arrangements, 69; benefits and, 83; defined, 70; extent of, 71–72, 74, 76, 77; and unionization, 366–367. See also Flexible work arrangements
Past behavior predictor, donor, 11, 12
Pathways to Leadership: How to Achieve and Sustain Success (Powell), reviewed, 327–332
Peabody, E. P., 409–411, 413
Pearce, R., High-Performance Nonprofit, The: A Management Guide for Boards and Executives, reviewed, 327–332
People With AIDS Coalition, 157, 163
Performance: financial and social measures of, 393–394; pressures to improve, 387; relationship of formal strategic planning to, 387–399; relationship of structure to, 119–133. See also Organizational effectiveness; Organizational structure; Planning-performance relationship; Strategic planning
Performance indicators: cultural, 255–259, 262–264; and dispersion measures, 261; and government matching grants programs, 256–259; government role in, 266–267; opposition to, sources of, 255; pressures for, 254–255; research uses of, 264–266; statistical, 259–261; use of, to affect behavior, 255–259; use of, in arts organizations, 253–267; use of, to evaluate behavior, 259–261; use of, to infer behavior, 264–266; use of, to monitor behavior, 261–264
"Performance of Performance Indicators in the Arts, The," 253–269
Performance reporting, 45–65; CCAF twelve-attribute approach to, 46, 52, 54, 57–58; informational content of, 46; management control cycle and, 46–47, 49–51, 52–59; research study on, 48–58; stakeholders and, 47, 49, 50, 52–59; standards for, 48, 58–64
Performing arts organizations: organizational structure of, 124–126; structure-effectiveness relationship study of, 119–133. See also Arts organizations
Personal relationships and public accountability case study, 435–438
Phased retirement: defined, 70; extent of, 74, 76, 77. See also Flexible work arrangements
Philadelphia, boards of trustees in, 103
Philanthropy: black, 98–99; political role of, 97–98; in Russia, 427–428
Pilgreen, G., "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348
Planning-performance relationship: conditions for planning and, 389–390, 393, 394, 396–398; managerial issues of, 399; methodology for studying, 390–394; organizational size and, 394–395; performance measures for, 393–394; and pressures for performance, 387; previous research on, 388–389; research issues of, 398; study of, among YMCAs, 390–399. See also Performance; Strategic planning
Pluralism, and intermediary bodies, 170, 171–172, 178
Policy versus Paper Clips: Selling the Corporate Model to Your Nonprofit Board (Fram and Brown), 327–332
Polis, 209
Political cutback strategies, among arts organizations, 278, 281–282
Political leaders, named in nonprofit news reporting, 185
Political strategy. See Corporate political strategy
Poole, P. P., "Exploring Structure-Effectiveness Relationships in Nonprofit Arts Organizations," 119–136
Portfolio models. See Strategy choice models
Positioning, 117. See also Nonprofit strategy selection matrix

Powell, J. L., Pathways to Leadership: How to Achieve and Sustain Success, reviewed, 327–332
Predominance of cause, as gift predictor, 4, 10, 11–12
Preodolenie, 426–427
Preschool education, public funding for, 406, 418
Prestige, and major gift motives, 339–340, 341
Principal-agent problem, 227
Private Foundations and Public Policy: The Political Role of Philanthropy (Colwell), reviewed, 95–99
"Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348
Private sector: defining of, and other sectors, 210–214; unionism in, 358. See also Corporate philanthropy
Privatization, and unionism, 358–360
Program on Non-Profit Organizations, Yale University, 444
Program strength: assessment form for, 148; in nonprofit strategy selection matrix, 141–151
Project on the Changing Dimensions of Trusteeship, 101–110
"Prominence" news value, 184–185
Proportional giving, 12
Prospect research, 11
Protection-of-assets attribute, 57
Provision point mechanism (PPM): defined, 237; effects of various information-sharing treatments on, 243–250; equity and reputation issues in, 238–239, 246–250; and free-riding, 237, 238, 240, 246, 248–249, 250; laboratory experimentation study of, 239–247; Niagara Mohawk Green Choice Program example of, 237
"Proximity" news value, 184, 185
Public benefit associations, 307, 356
Public choice theory, 225, 226–227
"Public Funding and Institutional Reorganization: Evidence from the Early Kindergarten Movement," 405–420
Public goods, 236; provision mechanisms, 236–237
Public policy: and AIDS funding, 156, 161–162, 164–165; and British intermediary bodies, 169, 170–171; and equity issues, 249; and foundations, 97–98
Public schools, kindergarten assimilation into, 405–418
Public sector: defining of, and other sectors, 211–214; and development of British intermediary bodies, 169–178; management in, and bureaucratic rules, 407–408, 417; nonprofit organization assimilation into, 405–418; nonprofit partnerships with, 355, 358–360; nonprofit similarities to, 362–366; unionism in, 360–362, 366. See also Government contracting; Government funding
Publicity, advice for getting, 189. See also Newsworthiness
Pynes, J. E., "The Anticipated Growth of Nonprofit Unionism," 355–371

R

Race, and trusteeship, 104–105, 106
Rape crisis center, 34
Rational-legal authority, 328, 329–330
Reasoning technique, 282
Reciprocity technique, 282
Recognition, as donor motive, 4, 7–8
Red Crescent, 425–426
Red Cross: in Russia, 425–426; workers' strike, 358
Reduced work week, 69; costs of, 83; defined, 70; extent of, 74, 76, 77. See also Flexible work arrangements
Refinancing cutback strategies, among arts organizations, 278, 283–284
"Relationship Between Formal Planning and Performance in Nonprofit Organizations, The," 387–403
Relevance attribute, 57, 58
Relocation cutback strategies, among arts organizations, 278, 284–285
Remissioning, 305; conflicts of interest and, 312–313, 314–315; factors in successful, 312–315; and intra-organization power, 314–315; of membership associations, 306–315; member direction and, 313–314; and stakeholders' demands, 312; strategic position of, 146; of United Ways' membership associations, 308–311

"Remissioning Nonprofits: Two Case Studies of Membership Associations," 305–316
Renz, D. O., "Board Practices and Board Effectiveness in Local Nonprofit Organizations," 373–385
Reporting. See Performance reporting
Reputation, and provision point mechanisms, 238–239, 246–250
Reputation breadth, 128, 129
Research Reports: "The Evolution of Trusteeship in the United States: A Roundup of Findings from Six Cities," 101–111; "State Nonprofit Data Bases: Lessons from the California Experience," 447–454; "Surveying the Major Gifts Literature: Observations and Reflections," 333–347; "Understanding the Third Sector: Revisiting the Prince, the Merchant, and the Citizen," 203–215
Resource acquisition effectiveness, 122, 128, 129
Resource dependence model, 18
Resources, and cooperation, 17. See also AIDS funding; Cooperation
Responsiveness attribute, 57, 58
"Restrained growth" strategic position, 144
Restructured roles strategy, 297
Retrenchment: as arts organization cutback management strategy, 280–281; strategic position of, 144, 150
Retribution technique, 282
Revkin, S., interviewed, 87–93
Rhetoric of scarcity, 155–165; consequences of, 164–165; defined, 156; underpinnings of, 158–163, 164. See also AIDS funding
Rhodes criteria, 128, 129
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, 159
Roller, R. H., "Strategy Formulation in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations: A Proposed Framework," 137–153
ROPES fundraising typology, 336
Rosenblatt, Cusson, and McGowan model, 4–5, 9–11
Rugh, T. E., "Remissioning Nonprofits: Two Case Studies of Membership Associations," 305–316
Rules, bureaucratic, 407–408, 417
Rural Community Councils, 172–173. See also Intermediary bodies
Russia: campaigning in, 428; emerging voluntary sector in, 421–432; local official/independent social organization relations in, 430–431; locally organized associations in, 426, 429; management/organizational challenges of, 429–430; multifunctional organizations in, 426–427; national charities in, from perestroika period, 426; philanthropy in, 427–428; second-tier organizations in, 428–429; self-organization in, 426, 429; social activism in, 425–432; social activism in, before Glasnost, 422–423; social activism in, with Glasnost, 423–425; social activism in, in Soviet period, 422–425; traditional Soviet-style associations in, 425–426; voluntary organizations in Voronezh, 1994, 425–432
Russian Union of Youth, 425–426
Ryan White Care Act, 162

S

Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra, 266
San Francisco Chronicle: content analysis of, 183–187; interviews with editors/journalists of, 187–189
Sauter, M., "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348
Scandals, 113–114, 308, 443. See also Accountability
Scarcity, rhetoric of. See Rhetoric of scarcity
Schansberg, D. E., "Fairness and Reputation Effects in a Provision Point Contributions Process," 235–251
Schmid, H., "An Interview with Sari Revkin," 87–93
Schurz, M., 409, 410
Schuster, J. M., "The Performance of Performance Indicators in the Arts," 253–269
Scope, strategy of increasing, 144
Secondary impacts attribute, 57
Self-Assessment for Nonprofit Governing Boards, 377–378
Self-interest, and donor behavior, 10, 12. See also Tax incentive
Self-organization, 426, 429. See also Grassroots organizations
Self-preservation, as donor motive, 9–10
Self-sufficiency, strategies of, 297–303

Service/service area attractiveness: assessment form for, 147; in nonprofit strategy selection matrix, 141–151
Severity of cause, as gift predictor, 4–5, 10
Sharp, J., "Private Lives, Public Accountability: A Case Study," 435–348
SHATIL, 87–93
Shaw, P., 410, 411, 414
Short-term grants: clinicians' perspectives on, 295–296; for health care organizations, 291–303; managers' perspectives on, 297–299
Siciliano, J., I., "The Relationship Between Formal Planning and Performance in Nonprofit Organizations," 387–403
"Significance" news value, 184, 185–186
Silver Threads Service, 49
Small Business Development Center consultants, 389–390
Smith, D. H., Entrusted: The Moral Responsibilities of Trusteeship, reviewed, 439–440, 442–443
Smith, K., 410, 411
Social change organizations: in Israel, 87–93; in Russia, 421–432
Social choice theory, 225, 226–227
Social constructionist perspective: in board effectiveness study, 373–383; on organizational effectiveness, 375
Social exchange theory, 343–344
Social issues management, 30. See also Corporate political strategy
Social performance measures, 393–394
Social Register, 105–106, 107
Social services organizations, 32–33; characteristics of nonprofit, 138; collaboration among, 34; and funding uncertainties, 161–163; for HIV/AIDS epidemic, 156–158, 160–161; and nonprofit unionism, 356; performance reporting in, 45–65; role of funders and, 35–36; in Russia, 426–429; strategy formulation in, 137–151. See also Developmental disabilities (DD) organizations; Health care organizations; Health and welfare (H&W) organizations
Social workers, and unionism, 363–364
"Society in Motion: Russia's Emerging Voluntary Sector," 421–432
Sociocultural movements, assimilation of, into public systems, 405–417. See also Kindergarten movement
Sociodemographic variables, donor, 8–9
Soldiers' Mothers of Russia, 428
Southeast Christian Church, 250
Southern Methodist University, 443
"Southville Jewish Community Center, Inc.: A Case Study," 193–196
"Stability" strategic position, 144–145, 150
Staff: and organizational structure, 121, 124–128; and performance reporting, 52, 53, 54–56. See also Employees
Stakeholders: and corporate political strategy, 31–32, 36–38; and performance reporting, 47, 49, 50, 52–59. See also Corporate political strategy
Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) system, 448
State nonprofit data bases: access to, 452–453; California Nonprofit Database (CND) Project example of, 447–453; costs of, 453; data included in, 449–450; data quality assurance for, 451–452; data sources for, 450–451; funding of, 453; hardware/software for, 453; organization categorization in, 448–449; organizations included in, 448; structure of, 452; use of, 452–453
"State Nonprofit Data Bases: Lessons from the California Experience," 447–454
State sector, defining of, and other sectors, 210–214. See also Public sector
Statistical indicators, 259–261
Steinberg, R., 225–228; Economics for Nonprofit Managers, reviewed, 197–201
Stone, M. M., "Corporate Political Strategy: A Framework for Understanding Nonprofit Strategy," 29–43
Strategic apex, 120–121
Strategic management: and corporate political strategy, 29–39; literature review of, 33–36; and performance reporting, 47–48. See also Corporate political strategy
Strategic planning, formal, 47; assessment of, 392–393; board strategic planning subcommittee versus executive committee responsibility for, 389, 393, 394, 396, 397, 399; conditions for, 389–390, 393, 394,

396–398; consultants for, 389–390, 393, 396, 397; managerial issues of, 399; model of, 392; organizational financial history and, 390, 393, 394, 396, 397, 398; pressures for, 387–388; relationship of, to performance, 387–399; variables in, 392. See also Planning-performance relationship
Strategic piggybacking, 146
Strategic planning committee, 389, 396, 397, 399
Strategies, continuation. See Continuation strategies
Strategies, cutback. See Cutback strategies
Strategy choice models: corporate versus nonprofit, 140–141; for cutback management strategies, 286; existing, in literature review, 139–141; and nonprofit social service organization characteristics, 138; for nonprofit social service organizations, new framework for, 141–151. See also Nonprofit strategy selection matrix
"Strategy Formulation in Nonprofit Social Services Organizations: A Proposed Framework," 137–153
Strengths/weaknesses assessment, in nonprofit strategy selection matrix, 141–151
Structure. See Organizational structure
Subscription mechanisms, 236–237. See also Provision point mechanism
"Surveying the Major Gifts Literature: Observations and Reflections," 333–347
Surveys of Public Participation in the Arts, 263
Sweeney, J., 359, 365
Sympathy, as donor motive, 8

T

Task/people orientation, 6–7, 10
Tassie, W., "Nonprofits Accommodate the Information Demands of Public and Private Funders," 45–67
Tax exemption, charitable, 197, 198–201; community benefit theory of, 200–201; donative theory of, 199–201; economic analysis of, 198–199; legal analysis of, 199; theories of, 198–199
Tax incentive, as donor motive, 4, 7–8, 10, 11
Taylor, M., 113–114
Telecommuting: costs of, 83; defined, 70; extent of, 74, 76, 77 See also Flexible work arrangements
Temporary workers, unionization of, 362–363, 366–367
"Three Booklets and Three Books on Nonprofit Boards and Governance," 439–445
Three Steps to Fiduciary Responsibility (Carver), reviewed, 439–440, 441
"Timeliness" news value, 184, 185
Traditional authority, 327–328
Transformational leadership, 329
Trisector framework, 209–215
Trust/mistrust, and cooperation, 24
Trusteeship: cultures of, 102–103, 107–109; demographics of, 104–105, 106; elitism of, 102, 105–106, 107; evolution of, 101–110; responsibilities of, 442–443. See also Boards
"Turnaround "strategic position, 144
Turnover, and flexible work arrangements, 82
Two-way symmetrical fundraising model, 334

U

"Understanding the Third Sector: Revisiting the Prince,
the Merchant, and the Citizen," 203–215
UNESCO survey of public financing of cultural activities, 262
Unionism: bargaining subjects of, 363; community-based organizing and, 366–367; future growth of, 355, 360; for health care workers, 360, 363–364; and job security, 360, 362; and National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) jurisdictional standards, 356, 357, 367; and nonprofit-public sector dependencies, 355–360; and nonprofit-public sector similarities, 362–366; nonprofit sector, 355–360; for professional employees, 360, 361–362, 363–364; versus progressive human resources management policies, 367–368; public sector, 360–362, 366; research about, lack of, 356; for social workers, 363–364; and wage levels, 365–366
Unions, listed: for health care workers, 360; for librarians, 362

United Hospital Fund, 159
United Kingdom, intermediary bodies in, 169–178
United Way, 237; accountability and, 308; challenges of, 308–309; and government, 308–309; membership associations, remissioning of, 306, 308–315
University of San Francisco, Institute for Nonprofit Organization Management, 447, 452
Upper Manhattan Task Force on AIDS, 157
U.S. Bureau of the Census, 263

V

Value for money, 46
Values-expressive framework, 70, 406–408; and impact of nonprofit assimilation into public sector, 415–418
Vancouver Island Multiple Sclerosis Society, 49
"Vertical integration" strategic position, 144
"Vitality-conflict" news value, 184, 186
Voluntary associations, 138. See also Membership associations; Nonprofit organizations
Voluntary contribution mechanisms, 235–237. See also Provision point mechanism
Voluntary organizations. See Nonprofit organizations
Voluntary sector. See Nonprofit sector
Voluntary services agencies, 138
Volunteers: and organizational structure, 121, 124–128; and performance reporting, 52, 53. See also Boards; Trusteeship
Voronezh Coordinating Center for Social Organizations, 429
Voronezh Independent Women's Initiative, 428–429

W

Washington Post, 183
Weekend compressed work schedule, 73, 83. See also Flexible work arrangements
Welfare pluralism, 170
Who's Who of America, 106, 107
"Why Donors Give," 3–14
Williams, F. G., "Is There an Afterlife? How Nonprofits Move Toward Self-Sufficiency as Foundation Dollars End," 291–304
Wirral Council, 173–176
Wolf Organization, 260–261
Wolfenden Report, 170
Women: on boards of trustees, 104, 105, 108–109; and flexible work arrangements, 80–81; in nonprofit sector, 70, 71, 363; unionized, in public sector, 361–362, 366
Women and AIDS Resource Network, 157
Wood, M. M., Nonprofit Boards and Leadership: Cases on Governance, Change and Board-Staff Dynamics, reviewed, 439–440, 443–444
Working-environment attribute, 57, 58
Wright, G., Not-for-Profit CEO: A Survivor's Manual, reviewed, 327–332

Y

Yale University, Program on Non-Profit Organizations,
444
YMCAs, in planning-performance relationship study, 390–399
York, A., "Competing Nonprofit Organizations Also Collaborate," 15–27
Young, D. R.: Economics for Nonprofit Managers, reviewed, 197–201; "Editor's Notes," 1–2, 117–118, 233–234, 351–353; "An Interview with Miklós Marschall," 317–326
Your Roles and Responsibilities as a Board Member (Carver and Carver), reviewed, 439–441
YWCA, Boston, 149–150

Z

Zychlinski, E., "Competing Nonprofit Organizations Also
Collaborate," 15–27